

Still hesitating? Let's give the stage to our customers:

Smart City – Living Together

"IoT-TICKET® platform enables rapid deployment of value-generating applications compared to traditional software development projects." – Teemu Hausen, Granlund

"With the IoT platform, we can automate operations, anticipate maintenance needs and get more detailed information to support planning." – Milko Tietäväinen, City of Tampere

Smart Energy – Do you feel the energy?

"EcoReaction has proven record of operating in a variety of environments and companies of different sizes." – Heikki Tuppurainen, Fortum

"We chose Wapice IoT-TICKET® platform because of its versatile design and ease of use in existing and new business areas. Wapice is a proven partner with high-quality references from industry players." – Riku Kuikka, Helen

Moving Machines – Moving together

"Digitalisation of sales provides cost efficiency for the entire business." – Johan Österholm, Ekeri

"Developing new business models based on real-time and historical machine data has never been easier." – Marko Takkula, EPEC

Industry

"Working with Wapice has been very exciting, productive and professional and they have been an integral part of our own team" – Richard Haagensen, Schaeffler

Our comparison showed that Wapice's IoT-TICKET® platform is by far the most agile way for us to get started. The choice was also supported by cloud independence: IoT-TICKET® can be installed in any commercial cloud environment. – Simo Kekkonen, Danfoss
